COMPLAINT TO VALUE COLLATERAL AND TO AVOID SECURITY INTEREST

NOW COMES the above-named Debtor/Plaintiff, an individual, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. In support of his complaint Plaintiff alleges as follows;

FACTS

14. Plaintiff is one of the record owners of the Property.

15. Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLP (Ocwen) holds the first mortgage against said Property. According to the proof of claim filed by Debtor's counsel on behalf of Ocwen, Debtor owed Ocwen $642,508.97 as of the date of the filing of the Case.

16. The second mortgage/trust, held by Nationwide Credit, Inc., had a balance of $74,417.09 as of the date of the filing of the Case, upon information and belief.

17. According to an appraisal obtained by the Plaintiff (Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "A"), the value of the Property was $590,000.00 as of the date of the filing of the Case.

18. The value of the Property as of the date of filing is less than the total amounts owed Ocwen. All of the above-named Defendants have liens subordinate to Ocwen's, therefore, all have wholly undersecured claims.

19. All Defendants were served a copy of Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan, along with a Special Notice to Secured Creditor, and did not object to confirmation.

COUNT I

11 U.S.C SECTION 506(A)

20. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 19, above.

21. Section 506(a) provides that an “allowed claim of a creditor secured by a lien on property in which the estate has an interest...is a secured claim to the extent of the value of such creditor’s interest in the estate’s interest in such property...and is an unsecured claim to the extent that the value of such creditor’s interest...is less than the amount of such allowed claim”.

22. The value of the Property at the time of filing was $590,000.00, which is less than the balance of Ocwen. This makes all of the liens held by Defendants wholly undersecured and thus unsecured pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 506(a).

COUNT II

11 U.S.C. SECTION 1322(B) (2)

23. Plaintiffs hereby repeat and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 22, above.

16. While 11 U.S.C. Section 1322(b) (2) expressly forbids the modification of a lien which is a mortgage on the Debtors’ principal residence, the antimodification provision in 1322(b) (2) does not protect claims that are wholly unsecured under Section 506(a). Tanner v. FirstPlus Financial., Inc. (In RE Tanner), 217 F. 3d 1357 (11th Cir. 2000).

WHEREFORE, Debtor/Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows;

- 1. That this Honorable Court value the Property at $590,000.00;
- 2. That the liens held by Defendants against the Property are hereby void and shall be of no effect during the pendency of the Plaintiff's case under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code;
- 3. That all of the Defendants' claims shall be allowed in full as a general unsecured claim and shall be treated as such under the Plaintiffs' Chapter 13 plan; and
- 4. That all of the Defendants' liens shall be void for all other purposes as to the interest of a Plaintiff in the Property when and if that Plaintiff obtains a Chapter 13 discharge in the above-entitled bankruptcy case (and void for all other purposes as to the Property in toto if Plaintiff receives a Chapter 7 discharge), and that at such time as a discharge order is entered as to Plaintiff in the Plaintiff's Chapter 13 case, the Plaintiff shall be allowed to file said discharge along with a copy of this Order with the Fairfax County, Virginia Recorder of Deeds.

Dated: May 22, 2015

Respectfully Submitted,
